

APPENDIX A – MODELLING AND OPTIONS REPORT

For the purpose of developing this EoI we have estimated how increases in population and increased recycling and the waste minimisation schemes will impact on future waste arisings and the amount of residual waste remaining for disposal/treatment. This information is provided in the following Appendix.

Consultants Entec facilitated an options appraisal workshop, where various treatment technology options were evaluated. The draft options report is provided in the following Appendix.