Scale of charges

A charge may be made for the reproduction of material (e.g. documents, photographs, prints, drawings, maps) in our collections, in publications or display for commercial purposes.

Where original material belongs to a depositor rather than to the Record Office, the depositor's consent may have to be obtained as well. If the item is still within copyright, permission to reproduce must also be obtained from the copyright owner.

Part or all of the reproduction fee may be waived, at the discretion of the Head of Archive Service particularly if the publication is charitable or educational in nature or a copy is accepted by the Record Office in lieu of payment.
