

JUDKINS NUNEATON

- Largest brownfield site in Warwickshire – 79 hectare site.
- Currently at feasibility stage, the emerging vision for the site, earmarked in the local plan, is to maximise its potential through the encouragement and development of theme specific employment usage.
- Consolidation of current usage on the site within the recycling industries while encouraging additional employment space within the recycling and renewable industry to establish themselves at Judkins.
- Site owned by WRG.

