

Copyright Declaration

I understand that microfilm of the items listed on this form have been supplied subject to current legislation:

Copyright

1. I declare that :-

a) I have not previously been supplied with a copy of the same material by you or any other librarian or archivist.

b) I will not use the copy except for research for a non-commercial purpose or private study and I will not supply a copy of it to any other person.

c) [Document]: To the best of my knowledge the work has not been published before it was deposited in your archive and the copyright owner has not prohibited copying of the work; and

d) [Published works]: To the best of my knowledge no other person with whom I work or study has made or intends to make, at or about the same time as this request, a request for substantially the same material for substantially the same purpose.

2. I understand that if the declaration is false in a material particular the copy supplied to me by you will be an infringed copy and that I shall be liable for infringements of copyright as if I had made the copy myself.

Any further reproduction or commercial use of the microfilm can only be made following written consultation with the Head of Heritage and Culture (Archives). [Note: posting this material on the Internet on blogs, social networking sites etc also counts as publication]

Data Protection

My research will not be used to support measures or decisions with respect to particular individuals and will not cause or be likely to cause substantial damage or substantial distress to any person who is the subject of these data while he or she is alive or likely to be alive (assuming a life span of 100 years).

I shall not make the results of my research available in a form that identifies any data subject without the consent in writing of the data subject or the data controller.

I understand that I shall become responsible for compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998 in relation to any processing by me of personal data obtained from the above records.

How your information may be used: We work with partners to provide you with public services. To do this, we may need to share your information. We will do this in a way that protects your privacy. Please let us know when any of your contact details change. You have the right to know what information we hold about you and we try to make sure it is correct.
