Put Your Pupils in the Dock

Bring your class to the old Warwick Crown Courts for a chance to re-enact a genuine Victorian trial.

Taking place in situ in one of the building's impressive Victorian court rooms, pupils take the parts of key roles including the judge, jury, defendant and witnesses.

The two hour workshop with Heritage Education staff includes:

- A tour of this amazing building, including the Victorian court rooms, 20th century cells and the 17th century dungeon.
- The chance to learn about a genuine Victorian Warwickshire court case, from the records in Warwickshire's archives, through role play and re-enactment.
- The chance for pupils to learn how the penal system of the past differs from the justice process today
- The chance to practice literacy, communication and drama skills in a new and exciting environment.

Workshops last 2 hours and accommodate up to 36 pupils

Cost: £4 per pupil (£5 per pupil for non WCC schools)
