Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How much money do I need to buy lunch?

A. £2.00 per day is sufficient, and £2.50-£3.00 if you wish to purchase a snack at morning break as well. All our prices are clearly displayed at food counters so you will soon get to know how much things cost. Our meal deal main courses start at around £1.40 and include salad or vegetables and rice, pasta or potatoes. A popular range of Panini's start at £1.30, with hot baps from £1.15; pizza for less than £1.00 and chilled drinks from as little as 25p our menus really are great value for money. £2.50 will buy a filled jacket potato, fresh fruit, a biscuit and a milkshake. Baguettes, sandwiches and filled rolls start from around £1.25.

At morning break there are a range of hot savoury snacks, sandwiches, bakery items, fresh fruit and soft drinks for sale: prices start at around 60p. Also at break you can purchase food and drink to eat at lunchtime or later in the day after a school sporting or club activity.

Q. I think my child might be entitled to a free school lunch, how do I find out?

A. It is being made easier for parents or carers who receive certain benefits to claim free meals. Families are being urged to apply now. The cashless payment system that operates at all of our service points means that children who are receiving free school meals will not stand out from the crowd.
