

Help and support available to children and families

A wide range of information is available via the webpages – www.warwickshire.gov.uk/fis

Early Help in Warwickshire

The Early Help and Targeted Support, Family Support Team are available to help with parenting, routines, boundaries and all aspects of family life.

The Family Support helpline is available from 9am to 4pm on 01926 412412.

There are 5 options to link you to your local Family Support team. Parents and professionals (consent is required to discuss the needs of a family) can utilise this service.

Family Information Service

Information, advice and guidance on a range of subjects not limited to, but including finance, housing, parental conflict, childcare.

Warwickshire wide helpline available 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday 01926 742274 or fis@warwickshire.gov.uk

1 to 1 support also available via FIS brokerage service (via phone during Covid-19) for complex enquiries. Brokerage service can be accessed via FIS helpline.

As a general rule contact the Family Support helpline for parenting and behaviour support, and FIS for all other enquiries. No wrong front door, calls can be re-directed as appropriate.

Support is available for all families and professionals working with families age 0 to 25.